DIAMOND TIME

In true holiday spirit, Mardo Ayvazyan's annual winter fete was a family affair, with sparkly diamonds adorning necks of all ages. The mega-sized PCH jewelry store was decorated to the hilt with gorgeous, shiny accoutrements befitting the glam, bejeweled crowd. Upon arrival at a red-carpeted Mardo, guests were greeted with bubbly before shedding their fine leathers to reveal the finest in holiday eveningwear. Incorporating a little giving back, this year the party was thrown in collaboration with the Beckstrand Cancer Foundation, which will benefit from the thousands of dollars collected throughout the evening. Guests purchased raffle tickets for the chance to win one of several beautiful (and pricey!) watches donated for the excellent cause. —JAMES REED
